Helpful Hints

Here are some helpful ways to enable to bring your best to God in Worship

- 1) Before you begin to worship, prepare your heart by focusing on God, letting go of any distractions that have happened before you came to the place of worship and confessing to God any sins you have committed. that he might forgive you and release His Spirit upon you.
- 2) Read a psalm or hymn that declares God's goodness and love, let the words draw you to a place before our unchanging God that draw out of you responses to His goodness and love.
- 3) As you worship, keep your focus on God and be aware of what His Spirit is saying to you. Often as we worship, God begins to speak to us and sometimes gives us a word of encouragement for others.
- 4) Keep your focus on the Lord and do not worry what others around you think. True worship is a place of liberty and freedom and we should be willing to respond to God as He leads us to without worry or concern.
