

What is Revival

So to recap – Revival is not in and of itself :-

An effective evangelistic crusade to build up our churches.

It is not a manifestation of the gifts of the Spirit to satisfy our curiosity for the supernatural.

It is not a bless me theology , which believes through blind faith we can get what we want from God.

Something which can be manufactured by us if we meet some spiritual preconditions of God...

Revival Is :-

A sovereign act of God that quickens the life of the individual Christian in a corporate setting.

Revival is an encounter with a Holy God. He visits his people and makes his holiness known. This results in the people of God being convicted of their sin and compromises with the world.

Revival brings people back to the cross of Jesus and as a result a new and deeper release of salvation grace and forgiveness is given.

As a result a new revelation of God's grace is experienced and New Love is rekindled in the heart of the believer.

New power is then given in conviction, signs and wonders, resulting in the winning of the Lost for Jesus

Discuss – when we see Revival as it is do we really want revival to hit our churches and nation?
