

REVOLUTION :- Youth Seeker Course

This course is designed for young people between the ages of 11 – 15. It is designed for kids who do not have any real knowledge of Jesus or the Christian faith.

Each session is a mixture of games, activities, discussion, presentation and a film clip. The Idea is that each session will teach the young people one aspect about the Good News message of Jesus.

As with any course there is a need to change and adapt the material to your group of youngsters, using more up to date films conveying the same point as the original. Also it has to be understood without prayer covering over all that is done through this seeker course, the results will be minimal of the lives of the lost.

Sessions

(1) “Why are we here.” – Looking at whatever scientists say – we are not an accident – but have been created by God with the purpose of having a relationship with Him.

(2) “Separated from God” - Reason why we do not experience God in our lives is because we all do things that are wrong and as a result we experience spiritual death and the eternal consequences of sin.

(3) “Why is Jesus.” - This session is to introduce the youth to Jesus and helping them examine in light of the Bible and History who Jesus really was. It is designed to help them answer the question, “Who do I think Jesus was?”

(4) “What has Jesus done for us?” - The heart of the Gospel is that Jesus came to die for us, to shed His blood for our sins, that we might be forgiven by a Holy God and come back into a living relationship with Him. This session is designed to help the kids understand why Jesus had to die and what that death has accomplished for us.

(5) “Time to Respond” - When we hear the Good News of Jesus, the Lord looks for us to come to a place of response and surrender. This session challenges to kids to respond to the Good News and helps them understand the cost that is involved.

(6) “Walking the Walk” The final session is to encourage the young people to persevere in the commitment that they have made to Jesus. To is to challenge them to right from the beginning build their lives on a foundation that lasts. It will take hard work, perseverance and discipline – but it is more the worth it now and in the future secured in Jesus.

Important – After the young people have been through this seeker course it is important that they go through a Nurture / discipleship course where they can be taught how to grow as a Christian – what Christians believe -and also why it is important to be part of God’s people the Church.
